

at 7 o'clock in the evening. — Dr Beecher has been invited to preach the Sermon & Mr Blagden to give the Right Hand of Fellowship — The charge has not yet been assigned as there is some probability of Dr Skinner's being in the city and it may be thought expedient to invite him to take part in the services. — I hope it will be convenient for you to come to Boston early in the week that you may see that every thing is straight —

I have written in great haste — Have been very much pressed with business since you left — my Partner & principal salesman having been sick —

Yours truly

Chaplet Kimball

P.S. I direct to Hopkinton as the most probable place. —

Dear Sir,

Yours of the 28th ult.

enclosing your answer was duly received.

You request me to advise you of the arrangements which we should make for installation, but do not tell me where to direct my letter. — I have waited a day or two in expectation of hearing from you, as I believe you said you would write as soon as you returned from Connecticut. — The letters have been sent
